The Moving Picture Boy entry:

“Little Bruce, who excelled in portrayals of "woebegone urchins", is best remembered now as the grubby tot in "THE SALVATION HUNTERS", a somewhat phoney essay in social realism with which Josef "von" Stenberg launched himself on the Hollywood scene. The tot, it must be said, was more real than the film - grave, droll, completely unsentimental, and with a disconcerting look of the star, George K. Arthur.”
