The Moving Picture Boy entry:

"Tibor Lubinszky, as he was spelt in his Hungarian days, was probably the leading European boy actor (in straight roles) before the arrival of Martin Herzberg. After 1920 he worked mainly in Austria and Germany [as Tibi Lubinsky], sometimes for his fellow-Hungarian Sandor (later Alexander) Korda. His sister Manci also filmed. "DIE GEHEIMNISSE VON LONDON" ["Mysteries of London", 1920] was a newly filmed version of OLIVER TWIST. An earlier "PRINCE AND THE PAUPER" made by Edison had Cecil Spooner (female) in the title roles."
