Born: Phoenix, Arizona; February 7th 1948

The Moving Picture Boy entry:

“This cheerful, freckled redhead was the son of a screen and TV writer. There is no way a film called "CHARTROOSE CABOOSE" is going to get left out of this book, and there was no way young Michael, the epitome of boy-next-door as well as a useful actor, would be spurned by the Disney studio. He claimed to have made more than 100 TV appearances by the time he was twelve.

McGreevey went on to be in "TREASURE IN THE HAUNTED HOUSE" (64), "THE WAY WEST" (67), "THE IMPOSSIBLE YEARS" (68), "DEATH OF A GUN-FIGHTER" (69), "THE COMPUTER WORE TENNIS SHOES" (70) and so forth.”
