Born: UK; c1933

Nothing else is known about him. I suspect he showed up on British television in adult life as a serious dramatic player, but he resembles the young Ian McKellan too much to be certain. He's not mentioned in The Moving Picture Boy.

"THE ADVENTURES OF PETER JOE" was a laughably threadbare British children's production concening a boy's inheritance and his involvement with a pair of bungling amateur removal men. Talk about postwar austerity!
