“Two children, Klas (played by Oliver Peldius) and Klara, are growing up in poor rural Sweden in the middle of the 19th century. Their father Albert is a glassblower, famous for his lovely vases, but he’s still not able to support the children and his wife Sofia. On New Year’s Eve a suave lord comes by and buys all of Albert’s glasswork. Afterwards nothing is the same. Klas and Klara are kidnapped and brought to a strange castle...”
