The Silents Majority website caption:

“Bob Steele and Bill Bradbury; from "THE ADVENTURES OF BOB AND BILL" (Pathé, 1920). Cowboy star Bob Steele (1907-1988) began his long ride on the screen at the age of 13. If Bob ever took a break from making movies, he must have done it when no one was looking, for his career was packed solid from 1920 to 1973.” - Diane MacIntyre

No further information currently available. The Silents Majority give the title as "THE ADVENTURES OF BOB AND BILL" and the year as 1920, Holmstrom as "THE ADVENTURES OF BILL AND BOB" and the year 1922. Neither gives any hint what those adventures consisted of. Still, nice wheels, eh?

Bob Steele (1906-88) was 16, believe it or not, but no other titles are known for him. Bill Bradbury is not listed in The Moving Picture Boy.
