The Moving Picture Boy entry on Ortin:

"Polito was a son of the actor Leopoldo Ortin; his leading roles were in "LA CANCIÓN DEL HUERFANO" and "LOS DOS PILLETES". Later, as Polo Ortin, he was in "DOS TENORIOS DE BARIO" (49) and "VIVE COME SEA" (51)."

Excerpt from The Moving Picture Boy entry on Busquets:

"This romantic-looking boy, with a wide, dreamily sensual face, was the leading Spanish-speaking child actor of his period, presumably son of the actor Joaquin Busquets (1875-1942). The Mexican film historian Emilio Garcia Riera registers with profound boredom his "unremittingly tearful face" in one sentimental drama after another..."

No information currently available on this title. Holmstrom lists several Mexican boy stars and their films, but more details are hard to come by from any other source. It will take a Mexican contributor to the archive to fill in the gaps. He guesses Ortin's age here at 14 and Busquets 11. Two other titles of interest were "ALLÁ EN EL RANCHO CHICO" ("Over at Boys' Ranch", 38) with Ortin and "CORAZON DE NIÑO" ("A Boy's Heart", 39) with Busquets – for a still of him, see "DULCE MADRE MIA", made the same year as this.
