Hot Tickets listing (July 2000):

“High school kid enjoys, then suffers precog-nition. Audience can see what’s coming before he does. * ”

No further information currently available. “Audience skips straight to the suffering phase” I would have said. Devon Sawa is too recent a product to rate a mention in The Moving Picture Boy, but his face crops up regularly on such internet sites as pay homage to the latest adolescent hunklets on American TV.

See subject index under SUPERNATURAL, pending more details.
