No information whatsoever currently available. It's one of those US titles of the Forties and Fifties that have mysteriously vanished from human ken. It wasn't an MGM title at any rate, or Universal, Warners, United Artists or Fox, and The Moving Picture Boy is the only one of my published sources to list it, but from the number of studio boy actors in it, it was possibly a school film. Scotty Beckett was 13, Conrad Binyon 12, Tommy Cook 13, Bobby Larson 11. Billy Roy and Rudy Wissler's ages are unknown.
