Speelfilm Encyclopedie review:

“An exciting Western in which Tim Holt has to grapple with gun-runners who are selling weapons abroad. It was a busy little year for Holt because on the side he also played with Humphrey Bogart in "THE TREASURE OF THE SIERRA MADRE". ** ”

Video Movie Guide 1993 review:

“When an entire shipment of Gatling guns is stolen, Tim Holt must act fast. 1/2 ”

The Movie & TV Spanking Page comment:

“Directed by Frank McDonald. One of a series of 60 minute "Tim Holt/Chito" Westerns made by RKO. In this one, little bad guy Danny, played by 12 year old Gary Gray, has helped his bad guy big brother steal some gattling guns [sic] from the army. Tim Holt and Chito arrive to apprehend the bad guys. Chito gives naughty young Danny his come-uppance after being kicked in the shins. Later, Tim and Chito look after Danny who of course turns out to be a sweet kid.”

No further information currently available. A programme-filler from one of the smaller studios then, and the only reason the Speelfilm Encyclopedie carries a listing for it is that one of its primary sources seems to be an (unidentified) encyclopaedia of film Westerns and matinee serials.
