Speelfilm Encyclopedie review:

"Big Boy and the famous Will Rogers were good friends. That's why Will let his son, then just ten years old, play a part in this Western. Big Boy inherits a ranch, but can only call it his own once he's proven himself worthy of it. The cowboys don't make it easy for him, and even try to put the blame on him for a bank robbery. Williams wrote the screenplay himself. * "
