CVMC video retail/rental website review:

"The child-hating star of a "Barney"-like television show finds his career in trouble when a reporter captures him nearly strangling a bratty boy. In an attempt to save his job, the man enlists to help an orphanage and there finds himself befriended by a girl of roughly nine years as well as falling in love with its attractive manager. Complications arise when the reporter "hires" one of the orphanage's lads, approximately twelve, to stir up some trouble. A generally fun little comedy that is rather easy to follow.

Rated NR: sexual themes; violence; profanity
 Language: German (also some English)
 Categories: Boy Films, Little to Preteen, Bullies & Teasing, Comedy, Girl Films, Little to Preteen."

[no listing in "Leonard Maltin's Movie and Video Guide 2001"]

No further information currently available. Sounds like a plotline for Krusty the Clown and Bart Simpson. Or, much further back, a sequel to "SITTING PRETTY", or a vehicle for the screen's most legendary child-hater, W.C. Fields.

See subject index under COMEDY, JOURNALISTS (& OTHER LIARS), ORPHANS / ADOPTION / CHILDREN'S HOMES and possibly BRATS / SPOILT CHILDREN.
