The Moving Picture Boy entry on Shchipachev:

"Livi, the son of the poet Stefan Shchipachev, played the lead in the two Timur films, which retained their popularity with Soviet youth for many years. They are something like a rural and more improving version of "NOUS LES GOSSES": a band of boys have fun and do good, helpful, patriotic things."

No further information currently available. Shchipachev was about 15 now, two years after he made "TIMUR I YEVO KOMANDA" ("Timur and his Gang", for which at least we have one still). Pupko, who was not in the first film, had appeared before in "SIBIRYAKI" (40).
