No further information currently available. Beckett was 6, already an old hand in the business and guest son to the stars. This year alone he made four other films including "ANTHONY ADVERSE" and "THE CHARGE OF THE LIGHT BRIGADE", but his r"les were very minor. He'd also featured in a dozen or so Our Gang shorts by 1935. So far as I'm aware, Scotty Beckett never landed any showpiece parts like "LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEROY", "TOM SAWYER" or even "OLIVER TWIST" (which Dickie Moore had played in '33), but he made up for it in quantity and was in constant work from 4 to 14, racking up ninety films by the age of 21.
