Video Movie Guide 1993 review:

"Malcolm McDowell plays a brazenly wicked wolf to a perky Red Riding Hood (Mary Steenburgen). Frances Bay makes for a rather zany grandmother. Although this production is highly entertaining, don't expect it to stick to the tale as most would remember it. **** "

No further information currently available. Judging from its length, this is probably a TV movie, but hopefully not an instalment from the Faerie Tale Theater, most of which seem to have left their source stories relatively unmolested. At 31, Ms Steenburgen was as close to the right age for playing the grandmother as she was for playing the lead. Of very slight interest, then, as a point of comparison with other film versions, such as a 17-minute short made the previous year, using Balinese head-masks and a child of appropriate age, or the Canadian/Hungarian "PIROSKA E FARKAS", from Rock Demer's Tales For All series.

See subject index under FANTASY / FAIRY TALES / FOLK TALES and GRANDPARENTS.
