Years before "My Mother the Car" there was "My Son Jeep"!

Halliwell's Television Companion review:

"Shortlived, live, half-hour comedy series for NBC, with Jeffrey Lynn as a widowed doctor looking after two children."

How Sweet it Was – Television: A Pictorial Commentary caption:

"Ann Sargent provided the romantic interest, Martin Huston was Jeep, and Jeffrey Lynn was Doc Allison. a widower practising medicine in a small town, in the 1953 series."

No further information currently available. I've no knowledge whether this series was ever broadcast in the UK. Martin Huston is not listed in "The Moving Picture Boy", so presumably he did little or no film work.
