Speelfilm Encyclopedie review:

"Gene promises a dying outlaw that he'll take care of his three children. It costs Autry a great deal of patience before he has taught the three "hard boys the difference between good and evil. Again there's a fearful amount of singing, and we see many familiar Western faces, such as Bud Osborne, Jack Rockwell, Ray Bennett and Lew Meehan. ** "

Video Movie Guide 1993 review:

"Well-worn story about a promise to a dying man is shifted to Gene Autry's west and puts him in a position to care for a gangster's three children on his ranch. The kids are city-tough and cause no end of trouble, but by the end they have reformed (naturally) and help Gene and Smiley bring in a gang of rustlers. ** "

No further information currently available. It's not clear from the cast list shown who the three boys are. David Gorcey was the brother of Leo, and joined The Bowery Boys, but none of those were under 30.
