The Moving Picture Boy entry on Kochev:

"The son of scientist parents, Aleko was discovered by Ivanka Grubcheva, who gave him a small part in "DECA IGRAYET VEN" and then the lead in "PRI NIKOGO", an admirably unsentimental drama of divorce. Its title, "With No-one", is the boy's answer in court when asked which of his parents he wants to go and live with. Having finished his military service, Aleko - who once described himself to Grubcheva as "your lazy boy" - hoped to return to acting."

No further information currently available. Lazy boys must of course be whipped, WHIPPED! Holmstrom guesses Kochev's age as 15, at which point in adolescence the divorce of one's parents, however acrimonious, must be something less of a trauma. As well as "DECA IGRAYET VEN" ("Children Playing Outdoors", 73) Ivanka Grubcheva also directed "IZPITI PO NIKOE VREME" ("Exams at Any Old Time", 74), an award-winning portmanteau film for children with several amusing anecdotal tales.
