No further information currently available. Ms Benham is presumably not the nightmare of the title, though whether she falls off a train, crawls onto the track, or is kidnapped, history has not recorded. Dorothy (1910-1956) and Leland Benham (1905-1976) were children of Thanhouser studio stars Harry Benham and Ethyle Cook. Dorothy's other films are not currently known, but Leland chalked up forty between 1912 and 1917 alone, with such succulent titles as "THE CRY OF THE CHILDREN" (12), "THE CHILDREN'S CONSPIRACY" (13), "A DOG'S GOOD DEED" (14), "JUST KIDS" (15) and "THE TWO CENT MYSTERY" (15).
