CVMC video retail/rental website review:

"From Daniel Defoe's classic novel comes this Mexican adaptation about a man marooned on a deserted island. For years, he battles nature and wild beasts on his own, but then a close call with some cannibals brings him a companion: Friday (Ahui), roughly six years old. If violence against animals disturbs you, you might want to avoid this film.

Rated NR: adult themes [sic]; violence; moderate nudity

Language: Spanish (with English dubbing)

Categories: Action/Adventure, Boy Films, Little to Preteen, Drama

The print includes speckling. You won't even know the film is dubbed since it is totally narrated."
