Soviet space technology spills over into state-of-the-art kids' film robot

Source: CVMC website

Those are called "shorts" by the way. They don't reach down somewhere below the kneecaps. To a modern kid these boys would seem to be in their underwear.

CVMC video retail/rental website review:

"A boy of about nine years old is given a box of magical matches. As our hero finds his every wish granted, his best friend becomes distant, preferring his pal before he had superhuman powers. Yet, when the two decide to perform good rather than selfish acts with the matches, their creator is annoyed and attempts imprisoning the lads.

Rated NR: mild violence

Language: Russian

Categories: Action/Adventure, Best Buddies, Boy Films, Little to Preteen, Fantasy & Sci-Fi

NOTE: This movie is in Russian with NO ENGLISH SUBTITLES OR DUBBING."

No further information currently available. The CVMC people are careful not to mention that many of their titles were made for children (while selling them to adult viewers) but their excellent catalogue is in fact a goldmine of foreign language material relevant to this archive.
