No further information currently available. A sequel to the previous year's "WHEN UNCLE TOOK CLARENCE FOR A WALK". The cinema's most memorable balloon story was the lovely French film "LE BALLON ROUGE" (56), in which a lonely small boy is befriended by a magical balloon with a mind of its own. When the balloon is ultimately destroyed by his tormentors, the heartbroken boy is lifted away into the sky by an armada of balloons who come to him from every corner of Paris. Sentimental yes, but beautiful yes.
