

90 HIDEOUS FILM TITLES

[Not the worst films, nota bene, but the most excruciating titles (although some of these would appear on both lists). This is a distillation of awfulness, the most cloying, the most simpering, the most crass titles from the main index. Many of them are imbued with a worship of "family values" verging on religious hysteria, while others ooze a patronising and saccharine vision of children as doe-eyed "innocents". Savour them slowly, one at a time, for maximum effect.]
